Webster President & CEO John Ciulla appointed to Federal Advisory Council

WATERBURY, Conn., Jan. 14, 2019 – Webster Financial Corporation (NYSE: WBS), the holding company for Webster Bank, N.A. and its HSA Bank division, today announced that Webster President and CEO John R. Ciulla has been appointed to serve as the Federal Reserve Bank of Boston’s representative to the Federal Reserve System’s Federal Advisory Council.

The advisory council, which consists of one banker from each of the 12 Federal Reserve Banks, meets quarterly to discuss business and financial conditions with the Federal Reserve Board of Governors in Washington, D.C. Each of the 12 Reserve Banks’ board of directors annually chooses one person to represent its district on the advisory council. Members customarily serve three one-year terms.

Ciulla also serves on the board of the Connecticut Business and Industry Association and is a former chairman. He is also a board member of the Business Council of Fairfield County. Ciulla earned a bachelor's degree in political science and history from Williams College, an MBA from the Columbia Business School, and a law degree from Fordham University School of Law.
