acferreira@websterbank.comWebster Bank Welcomes Theresa Kozikowski to Human Resources

WATERBURY, Conn., May 7, 2019 – Webster Bank has named Theresa A. Kozikowski as its director of Human Resources, Enabling Functions and Employee Relations. She reports to Chief Human Resources Officer Bernard Garrigues.

Kozikowski is also responsible for Human Resources policies, risk and compliance and regulatory matters, and serves as the Human Resources liaison to the Operational Risk Management Committee (ORMC) and Legal.

“The key to Webster’s success is our people,” said Garrigues. “Teri’s global experience in organizational assessment and employee relations will enhance our strategic investments in banker engagement.”

Kozikowski comes to Webster from Edelman Financial Services, where she contemporized the HR function as the chief human resources officer. Prior to Edelman, she was managing director of human resources, U.S. and Canada, at Marsh & McLennan Companies, and she spent 16 years at General Electric in positions of increasing responsibility within the Human Resources function.

Kozikowski earned both her bachelor’s degree in biology and an MBA from Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute (RPI). An active RPI alumna, she is a past president of the Rensselaer Alumni Association Board of Trustees and currently serves as co-chair of the Rensselaer Alumni Hall of Fame program.
