Providence Business News Names Webster's Jason Carosi to its 2019 '40 Under Forty' list

Providence, R.I., June 19, 2019 – Webster Bank is proud to announce that Jason Carosi, senior vice president, senior relationship manager, has been named to Providence Business News' 15th "40 Under Forty" list. Carosi was chosen from more than 150 applicants who work in Rhode Island for his notable career success and outstanding community service.

"Jason is an extremely conscientious and driven professional with 16 years of experience in accounting, banking and management," said Donald M. Troppoli, senior vice president, Business Banking Regional Manager for Rhode Island and Southeastern Massachusetts, adding, "He is a man of integrity and ethics, who is also highly engaged in the communities we serve. We're so very proud to see him recognized for all that he has accomplished."

Carosi joined Webster's team in 2013 as a vice president, relationship manager in Business Banking, and has quickly risen to senior vice president, senior relationship manager. Jason manages a large and complex portfolio of highly valued clients. He has consistently delivered exceptional results year over year and is considered one of the top-ranked relationship managers in the bank.

The 2019 winners – including doctors, scientists, lawyers, engineers and even a farmer – will be honored July 18 at Aldrich Mansion in Warwick. Each will be profiled in an upcoming special section of PBN.

Carosi has been a past recipient of Webster Bank's Silver Winners' Circle, given to the banker with the second highest revenue production in Business Banking.

A resident of Cranston, R.I., Carosi has provided leadership, time and talent to many local and regional nonprofit organizations. He has been a board member of Rhode Island's Leadership Board for the American Lung Association of the Northeast since 2010 and served as board chair in 2015. He is also a board member of Junior Achievement of Rhode Island and a member of its Development Committee. Jason is a past member of Webster Bank's Employee Campaign Board for United Way of Rhode Island and Inspiring Minds' Power Lunch Program.

Jason also is an active participant in Providence's Hasbro Children's Hospital's "Good Night Lights" tradition, and he volunteers and fundraises on behalf of the Friedreich's Ataxia Research Alliance, an organization dedicated to the pursuit of scientific research leading to treatments and a cure for Friedreich's ataxia.
